Take out a learner driver subscription for 6 months

The learner driver subscription is the cheapest solution for practising for your driving test. Practise your driving accompanied by one or more authorised persons in one of various models of cars. You will gain more experience and be safer on the roads. You are also comprehensively insured and protected by the Policy Deductible 300. For details, see the next page.

Learner driver subscription 6 months including Policy Deductible 300	CHF 49
Accompanying subscription 6 months excluding Policy Deductible 300	CHF 59

Prices exclude time and kilometre rates
Requirements: valid provisional driving licence and authorised accompanying person(s), provided they are a Mobility member or take out the accompanying subscription.

A learner driver subscription can only be taken out once. It is always valid for 6 months, even if the driving licence is obtained before the end of that period.
