

PRESS RELEASE

Lucerne, 18 March 2016

Mobility will be moving to Rotkreuz at the beginning of 2018

Due to conversion work and a lack of space at its current registered offices in Lucerne, Mobility has decided on the Suurstoffi estate in Rotkreuz as the site of its new headquarters. The move is planned for early 2018.

Mobility is constantly growing. 196 staff throughout Switzerland – 50 more than ten years ago – keep 127'300 customers on the road in the red car sharing vehicles round the clock. As the company increases in size, its headquarters on Gütschstrasse in Lucerne with a current staff of 130 is reaching its limits in terms of capacity. Nonetheless, this is not the main reason for the move according to Mobility Managing Director Viviana Buchmann. "The owners of the property are planning to carrying out extensive renovation work, which would mean high noise levels and operating restrictions." This is why the company has had to look for alternatives in Central Switzerland, says Buchmann.

Detailed evaluation of various sites

After a comprehensive assessment of several office buildings, the cooperative has now opted for the Suurstoffi estate in Rotkreuz, where it will move at the beginning of 2018. A convincing overall concept including CO<sub>2</sub>-free operation was a clinching factor in the decision, as well as the fact that construction work on the building and the estate is already well advanced. "The Suurstoffi estate is a very good solution for us," says Buchmann. "It is centrally located and offers excellent transportation links in various directions."
